

10 July 1975.

Dear Governor,

Herewith the material on Chile I promised you. It will make you generally aware of all the Basic elements of our involvement in Chile. Paragraph I C goes a bit beyond the straight news story. It is included because a story on this appeared on July 7. In the Washington Post.

Hope all goes well with Mrs. Harriman and with you.

With Every good Wish Faithfully

Jim Wachtel

Appended are a few documents on statements by The President of the Senate & Chamber of Chile, and the Bar Association prior to Allende's overthrow. D

Governor Averell Harriman

Your attention, however, is called to paragraph I (C), which goes a bit beyond straight news stories to date. It was included because of the article on General Schneider which appeared in the 7 July Washington Post, and so that Ambassador Harriman could be generally aware of all the basic elements of our involvement in Chile. (The Schneider story is the subject of current Senate Select Committee investigation.)
